Grandview Police Department Recognized for Excellence in Policy Management and Training

Grandview Police Department announced today that it has been recognized for excellence in policy management and training in 2023 by Lexipol <https://www.lexipol.com/> the nation's leading provider of policy, training, and wellness support for first responders and public servants.

The Lexipol Connect program tracks the Grandview Police Department's performance on five metrics proven to measure success in policy management. GPD achieved Gold, the highest level of recognition offered, for consistent and effective policy dissemination to personnel, timely policy updates as laws change, and officer training on policies.

"Policies are the foundation of Police operations; having and regularly training on good policies are essential in our service to the community. We are proud to be recognized by Lexipol Connect for our dedication to continuous improvement, professionalism, and safety," says Kal Fuller, Chief of Police.

GPD's excellence in policy and policy training enhances community safety by ensuring consistent, effective response based on state and federal law and nationally recognized best practices.

"Agencies using Lexipol policies are progressive agencies delivering the highest levels of service," says Chief Fuller." GPD exhibits a commitment to excellence through their policy management efforts that reduce risk for personnel and community members."
